Directions

Remove the coarse fat and sinews from the tabletop. Place the meat in a vacuum bag with the spices and vacuum seal tightly. Cook sous vide in a combi steamer at 68°C, 50% humidity for 12-15 hours. Afterward, unpack the meat and cool it quickly. Pour the stock from the bags into a pot, bring to a boil, skim the fat, and season. Keep the broth warm for service. Once the meat is cold, it can be portioned and prepared for service.

For the herb oil, let green herbs of your choice steep in neutral vegetable oil at 40°C for about 1 hour, blend well, and let sit overnight. The next day, strain the oil through a fine cloth.

Cut the root vegetables into julienne, steam in the combi steamer at 99°C for 3 minutes, and then cool immediately.

Peel the potatoes, quarter them, and steam them until soft in the combi steamer at 99°C for 35-45 minutes.

In a pot, bring milk, salt, pepper, and nutmeg to a boil, press the soft potatoes through a fine press, and add them to the hot milk. Add the butter and stir with a wooden spoon, adjusting the seasoning if necessary. Cool quickly.
